OUTLINES.

The Czar of Russia has proclaimed a state of war at Odessa, where the rioting or revolution has resulted in complete anarchy; the fighting has resulted in the slaying of people estimated from 350 to 1000 and all the hospitals are overun with wounded; incendiaries have distroyed million of dollars worth of property; the mutinous crew of the battleship Kniaz Potemkine still hold the ship, and the squadron expected last night was ordered to sink the ship if the mutineers refuse to surrender——A wholesale lynching occurred at Watkinsville, Ga., yesterday morning at 2 o'clock when nine men, including one white man, were taken from jail and riddled with bullets, all being killed but one negro who survived——A dangerous derelict, a submerged schooner, is reported off Hatteras——After speaking to crowds in Connecticut yesterday, President Roosevelt reached his summer home at Oyster Bay where the people gave him a rousing welcome ——B. Frank Vaughn, a prominent Norfolk man, committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday——After strong pressure, Governor Glenn has refused to pardon the two gold brick swindlers now serving ten years in the North Carolina penitentiary——At Asheville yesterday, Ed. Chambers Smith, of Raleigh, was re-elected Knight Commander of the Southern Alpha Kappa Fraternity—It turn out that because Chief Engineer Wallace, of the Panama Canal Commission, desired to resign, Secretary of War Taft, brutaly demanded his resignation, charging him with changing his position over night "for filthy lcrue," and being influenced "solely by personal advantage"; President Roosevelt joins in with Taft in this apparently uncalled-for discourtesy——New York markets; Money on call strong and higher 2 1-2 to 3 1-2 per cent, closing bid 3 offered at 3 1-4; cotton, spot quiet 9.90; flour firm and unchanged; wheat firm, no. 2 red 1.06 elevator; corn steady; No. 2, 62 elevator; oats firm, mixed 36 to 36 1-2; turpentine easy 61 to 61 1-2; rosin quiet.

Tom Watson may run a magazine and act grouchy towards Col. William J. Bryan but he can't go off to Europe and leave behind the spirit that animates a State convention like that which the Democrats of Ohio finished up on Wednesday.

The Washington Post of Monday reports that a darkey made three attempts to commit suicide on Sunday. Of course insanity was the cause of the darkey's rashness, for none with his wits about him would commit such an act with watermelon time about to be ushered in.

A State's attorney named Fake is conducting the grand jury inquiry into the Chicago strike. A great many newspapers think that is significant, but most any State can look you in the face and tell you that a lot of their officials are fakes in reality instead of in name.

Col. Tom. W. Lawson keeps on telling about losing $1,000,000 on account of the frenziedesquesness of finance. After eating a lot of clam fritters the other night, we found more money than that, but before we could get to it we were woke up by falling from the top of a mountain five miles high.

The Atlanta Constitution is running a column under the heading of "Georgia Editors Tender Advice to the Legislature." What will Frank L. Stanton think of the managing editor for starting another humorous department on the same page with the column conducted by the gentleman from Billville?

A city girl writes: "It is a fond dream of mine to become a farmer's wife and meander with him down life's pathway." Girl, if you will cut out the "fond dream" part of it and guarantee your domestic qualities, many a farmer will hitch up his mule and come to town so he can cultivate your acquaintance.

Says the Washington Star: "Mr. Bryan has found one or two things to disapprove of in Mr. Roosevelt's administration, and may be depended on to find many more before 1908." What President Roosevelt has done and left undone would make a book that would crowd Author Roosevelt's most grouchy production off the shelf.

The regular annual regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club will be sailed over the club course on July 4th and will prove one of the drawing cards at Wrightsville Beach on that great National holiday. The race will start on high water at 10 o'clock in the morning and indications are that there will be a sufficient number of entries to make the regatta one of unusual interest. There will be at least two new boats in the list of entries and their behavior will be watched with pleasure.

The prizes for the regatta are now on display in Honnett's window. The first is a handsome candelabra; the second, a fine pair of field glasses, and the third, a butter dish and pick.

A majority of the applications not in proper shape have been made so by the dealers and returned to the office. The applicants have until to-morrow at 1 o'clock when the office of the Register of Deeds closes, to get their applications and have them approved and licenses issued thereon.

MASON BOYS GUILTY

Verdict Against Them and Young Guthrie in the Superior Court Yesterday

THE CASE OF T. F. BELL

Solicitor Will Try Only For Murder in Second Degree—May Be Appeal to Supreme Court Upon Conviction of Masons.

After deliberating upon the evidence and the law for a little more than an hour, a jury in the Superior Court at 5:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon came in and returned a verdict of guilty in one of the two cases as to Joe and Jessie Mason and Will Guthrie, the young men charged with highway robbery on the East Wilmington road a week or two ago, particulars of which are well remembered by the public, a recommendation to the mercy of the court having been made by the jury with the verdict as to Joe Mason and Will Guthrie, the younger of the three defendants. The charge of which they were convicted is secret, felonious assault by waylaying and with intent to kill, the penalty for which is not less than 12 months or more than 20 years imprisonment or not exceeding $2,000 fine, either or both in discretion of the court. Another case on the docket charging the boys with highway robbery, straight out, is yet on the docket and will probably be taken up for trial upon the conclusion of the case of T. F. Bell, charged with murder, which is now being heard. After the verdict in the Mason case yesterday, Herbert McClammy, Esq., of counsel for the defendants, with a view of appealing the cases to the Supreme Court, made two motions—one for arrest of judgment and another to set aside the verdict—which will be heard by Judge Allen this morning when the solicitor will make a prayer for judgment.

The trial of the Mason and Guthrie case was resumed when court met at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. An hour was consumed in completing the jury every one of the 25 talesmen returned for the day having been exhausted before the panel was complete and agreeable to both sides. The jury as finally passed was composed of Messrs. J. B. Casteen, Geo. W. Britt, H Gerdes, F. A. Fennell, H. B. Farrington, A. Garrison, Jas. E Smith, E. F. Bass, E. A. Todd, R. H. Bowden, D. D. Boylan and B. H. Scott.

The State introduced only three witnesses—Mr. George R. Smith and little son, James L., who were attacked by the three defendants, and Policeman M. C. Gray, who made some of the arrests. Mrs. Guthrie, mother of Will Guthrie, the youngest of the three prisoners, and the boy's grandmother, were the only witnesses for the defence. Both Mrs. Guthrie and her mother said that on the night of the affair on the road, Will went to his room and they believed he had gone in for the night. However the alibi was not complete as neither of the witnesses could say that the boy did not go out of the room again. Neither of the defendants went on the stand and the testimony was all in by 12 o'clock. Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., opened the argument for the prosecution and was followed by Woodus Kellum, Esq., for the defendants. Brooke G. Empie, Esq., next spoke for the prosecution and Herbert McClammy, Esq., closed for the defence before dinner. When court convened in the afternoon Marsden Bellamy, Esq., made the final and an eloquent plea for the young men and Solicitor Duffy, for the State, closed the argument with a powerful arraignment of the prisoners and their conduct in terrorizing the community for weeks. Judge Allen's charge to the jury was explicit and left the jury with a clear idea of its duty in the premises.

The three prisoners sat in the court room all day. The older of the Masons is about 27 years of age and has a full grown moustache, strong physically and apparently old enough for the father of either of his co-defendants. Guthrie is a mere boy and his fingers twitched with nervousness all through the trial. They will be brought in court again to-day for judgment and still again for the second trial in the event the Bell case is completed in time to-day.

The Bell Case.

The case of T. F. Bell charged with the killing of John Roderick in the southern part of the city in a Saturday night brawl about six weeks ago, Bell having fired to repulse an attack upon a house inhabited by women of questionable character, was called immediately after the Mason and Guthrie case was disposed of and the remainder of the afternoon was consumed in selecting a jury to try the case. When court adjourned only five of the twelve men required had been passed upon by both sides and deputies were busy in summoning bystanders in the court room and persons on the street to complete the panel. The jurors already agreed upon are Wm. Sheehan, C. D. Sykes, J. W. Brown, T. E. King and E. J. Taylor. Others in the box but not yet passed on were W. F. Penny, E. F. Bass, J. D. Bateman, M. T. Croom, W. H. Corbett and E. F. Brooks. Seated with the solicitor in the prosecution of the case is Joe Roderick, a brother of the deceased, and his counsel, W. P. Gafford, Esq. Bell was present with his son and his attorneys, Marsden Bellamy, Herbert McClammy and Woodus Kellum, Esqs. The solicitor has announced that he will try only for murder in the second degree. There are 15 or 20 witnesses for the State. A conference with them was held after court yesterday by Solicitor Duffy and Attorney Gafford for the prosecution.

At the opening of court yesterday morning, of the 40 talesmen drawn for the day, the sheriff returned as summoned 25 and as not found 15 as follows: W. C. Husbands, A. L. DeRosset, W. G. Fergus, J. G. Johnson, E. E. Lundy, A. S. Holden, E. C. Horton, Freeman E. Wood, F. H. Smith, Joseph R. Farrow, J. C. Friar, J. P. Russell, T. A. Whitney, H. W. MacRae and S. A. Rogers. Excused by the court were A. F. Davis, J. B. Rhodes, W. D. Huhn, Jas. F. Post, Aug. H. Zoeller and J. F. Whitaker.

STATE TEST TRUCK FARM.

Committee From State Board of Agriculture Coming To-day.

The Chamber of Commerce is advised that the committee from the State Board of Agriculture which has under consideration the removal of the State trucking test farm from Willard to the more central location near this city, will be here to-day to hear the claims of Wilmington and the people of the trucking belt in favor of the removal of the farm here. President J. A. Taylor has appointed the following committee from the Chamber of Commerce to meet the committee at The Orton at 11 o'clock this morning and to adopt such methods as they may deem proper to show the visitors the lands around Wilmington and present the claims of the community, viz: Messrs. H. W. Malloy, Wm. E. Worth, W. B. Cooper, Hugh MacRae, W. A. Dick, Z. W. Whitehead, H. B. Rogers, W. A. French, Jr., M. F. H. Gouverneur, Jas. H. Chadbourn, M. J. Heyer, D. McEachern and C. W. Worth. Mr. Taylor will accompany the committee and confer with the visitors. The following telegram was received last night from Raleigh:

Raleigh N. C., June 29.—Commissioner of Agriculture Patterson returned this morning from his home in Caldwell county some days sooner than expected in order to attend a meeting of the special committee from the State Board of Agriculture having in hand the matter of the location of the State test truck farm. The committee is to meet in Wilmington tomorrow to consider the question of retaining the farm recently established at Willard or changing it for one near Wilmington. The committee consists of Commissioner Patterson, State Horticulturist Hume, State Chemist Kilgo, and A. T. McCallum, of Red Springs, and William Dunn, of New-Bern, of the State Board.

LOCAL PORT PARAGRAPHS.

Two Schooners Arrived—Buoy Tender Wistaria Here—A Report.

Schooner Wm. Neely has arrived from New York with cargo of salt and cement, the salt being consigned to the D. L. Gore Company and the cement to parties in the interior.

The schooner George M. Grant, 1,148 tons, Capt. Pelton, arrived yesterday from Norfolk with cargo of coal for the Standard Fuel and Supply Co., of Savannah, Ga., which recently received several large contracts here. The "Grant" came in port drawing 21 feet of water, being one of the largest vessels of her class which ever visited the port. She was successfully towed in by the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Transportation tugs.

The United States buoy tender Wistaria Capt. Johnson, arrived in port yesterday on a regular tour of inspection, Capt. Johnson reports yesterday morning, off Frying Pan Lightship, an unknown steamer, bound south, proceeding very slowly and evidently in some distress. She signaled and communicated with a Savannah line steamer, bound north, and later proceeded.

REMAINS LAID TO REST.

Funeral of H. W. Lewis—Left $1,000 Life Insurance Policy.

The funeral of the late H. Walter Lewis, whose tragic death occurred Wednesday evening, was conducted at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of Mr. James A. Lewis, a brother of the deceased, the services having been conducted by Rev. J. A. McKaughan, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church. The remains were laid to rest in Bellevue cemetery.

The family of Mr. Lewis attribute the young man's rash deed more to the fact that he was in wretched health than that he had been drinking heavily. Mr. Lewis left his work at the Angola Lumber Company on account of sickness between 9 and 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. On way home he stopped and took a drink or two but, it is said, that he was not drunk when he turned the pistol to his breast and ended his life. Mr. Lewis was considerate of and faithful to his family, having taken out and paid up a policy of $1,000 on his life with the New York Life Insurance Co., a short time before he died.

At Attractive Lumina.

Yesterday was one of comparative quiet at Wrightsville Beach but to-day the crowds will be swelled by a large excursion party from Clinton, N. C. Lumina is always headquarters for these excursions and the fame of that attractive resort has already spread into Wilmington's excursion territory far and wide. All visitors as soon as they reach the beach ask to be shown to Lumina and once there and in the enjoyment of the delightful breezes and unexcelled advantages of bathing and other amusements, it is hard to get them away. The orchestra has recently been strengthened by the arrival of several new players and the music at Lumina is proving a drawing card.

THOS. E. MAYER DEAD

Rally at Hospital Only Temporary, He Died of Opium Poisoning

THE REMAINS TO SOUTHPORT

Manner and Form In Which Drug Was Taken May Be Investigated By Grand Jury—His Death a Very Sad One.

Thomas E. Mayer, the well known Wilmington man who was taken to the hospital Wednesday afternoon from Mr. Kelley's saloon at Second and Princess streets, in a comatose state, resulting from opium poisoning received either in an overdose of laudanum or some like drug, administered by himself, with suicidal intent, or by some person unknown for a foul purpose, died in the hospital early yesterday morning. His death was not unexpected for, despite heroic treatment by his physicians, he was never brought to more than half consciousness and his condition held out only a very faint hope.

The remains were removed from the hospital at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and brought to Yopp's undertaking establishment, on Princess street, where they were prepared for burial. The remains will be taken to Southport on the steamer Wilmington this morning at 9 o'clock and interred in the cemetery there. Mr. Mayer had many friends here who will regret to learn of his tragic death. He was about 52 years of age and had spent all his life here. He was born at Southport and had never married. For many years he conducted a saloon in this city. At one time he conducted the Bonitz House bar with the late Mr. Shepard, and still later was proprietor of a saloon on Market street, between Front and Water. He was a man of amiable qualities and drank to excess very seldom. His death is indeed a sad one.

As the coroner of the county can act only upon affidavit, there was no official inquiry into the circumstances of the death of Mr. Mayer by that official yesterday. Where or how the unfortunate man received so much of the deadly drug in his system, no one appears to know. He appeared at the saloon of Mr. Kelley in a stupefied condition and had drank nothing there. He was taken in Mr. Kelley's saloon as an act of kindness and as soon as it was found that the man was overcome with something, a physician was summoned with all possible dispatch. It is understood that in the absence of an investigation by the coroner, the grand jury at the present term of court has instituted an inquiry into the case and will make an endeavor to find from whence came the drug and the manner of its being administered. However, the deliberations of that body are secret and it is not known along what lines the investigation has or will proceed.

NEW H. & L. TRUCK.

Contract For New Fire Apparatus Awarded By Committee Yesterday.

The Fire Committee, Aldermen Rathjen, chairman, met a second time yesterday afternoon and awarded the contract for the new hook and ladder truck for the Wilmington Fire Department to the American LaFrance Fire Engine Co., of Elmira, N. Y., which was represented by Mr. Hugh Robertson, of Atlanta. The truck is to be first class in every respect and is to be built and furnished within 90 days and subject to 40 days trial before its acceptance by the committee. The price is $1,695 or fitted with ball bearings for $70 additional. Chief Schnibben and the committe are not yet decided whether they want the ball bearing truck or not and have taken the option on that specification of the contract with a view of writing to other departments and ascertaining what satisfaction the ball-bearing apparatus is giving, cost of repair, etc.

The company which will furnish the new truck is one of the largest in the United States and is a consolidation of several companies which have been furnishing fire apparatus to the city as far back as the days of the old Button and Silsby of the volunteer department. Chairman Rathjen and the committee are to be congratulated upon the fine machine they have bought at the extremely low cost.

Inspected Naval Militia.

Colonel T. H. Bain, of Goldsboro, Inspector of the North Carolina National Guard, and Adjutant F. H. Shipp, of the North Carolina Naval Brigade, arrived yesterday and last night in their armory on Princess street, conducted the annual inspection of the Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves, in command of Lieut. H. M. Chase and Lieut. Jno. B. Peschau. The division appeared for inspection with full ranks and there is every reason for stating that the Wilmington sailors passed a very creditable inspection. It was announced that the division will very soon be equipped with brand new Krag Jorgensen rifles and navy pistols. The equipment is expected in a very few days. Col. T. C. James, of the Second Regiment, and other local National Guard officers accompanied Col. Bain and Adjutant Shipp in making the inspection last night.

Queer Stern-Wheel Craft.

Mr. Jno. W. Squires, of Natmore, Bladen county, came down the river yesterday in a neat little craft which he has rigged up himself and which he proposes to run as a freight boat upon a small scale between Wilmington and the "home port." The boat is about 25 feet long and has a stern wheel propelled by a handcrank rigged up with a system of weights which propel the wheel quite rapidly and is productive of great speed. The new boat was built outright by Mr. Squires and on her initial trip yesterday was anchored in Princess street dock where she attracted a good deal of attention.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Friday Morning, June 30.

VESSEL OWNERS ON A STRIKE.

Something was doing in New York Tuesday that may interest if not affect the lumber interests of Wilmington and other Southern ports which do a large business in lumber. The lumber trade of Wilmington is a big item in our port business, and our lumber manufacturers will be interested in the fact that the sailing vessels of the Atlantic seaboard have rejected the charter party forms recently adopted by the members of the Yellow Pine Exchange. It means higher freight rates by sailing vessels but we do not know whether it will affect most the yellow pine dealers up North or the manufacturers of yellow pine lumber in the South.

In New York on Tuesday the select committee of the sailing vessel owners of the Maritime Exchange held a meeting and unanimously rejected the charter forms of the Yellow Pine ge. The vessel owners de- animously not to carry ber for the yellow pine men under the new charters on any conditions. Pending the drawing up of a suitable charter party more favorable to the sailing vessel owners, the committee unanimously resolved to use the charter party of the Maritime Exchange. Fields S. Pendleton, chairman of the Select Committee, who is well known in Wilmington, presided over the meeting, and about 20 prominent vessel owners were present. The other members of the committee who took an active part in the discussion were: C. W. Chadwick, Hobart W. Geer, William W. H. Killeen and A. J. Newbury.

There was considerable feeling expressed against the Yellow Pine men by the sailing vessel owners, because the latter said that the former had been amassing wealth while the latter had been only making enough for operating expenses and not enough for wear and tear, insurance and interest. It was stated that this new charter party by the lumbermen was the last straw of injustiee piled on the sailing vessel men, and that the latter would sooner draw their vessels out of the water and quit carrying lumber than do so under the new restrictions. Mr. F. S. Pendleton spoke as follows about the vessel owners' meeting and its result:

"The sailing vessel owners will not do any business with the lumbermen under those forms. We are all going to stand together. For the past three years the vessel owners have been just barely making oprating expenses. They have not made enough to pay interest on the money invested in the vessels, on the wear and tear and insurance. We ship owners have become adjuncts to the lumbermen's business and they have been getting rich at our expense. But they are not satisfied with all that they have got and are trying in these new forms to get still more. But they won't get it, for we will all stand together and refuse to accept their terms on any consideration. They have one rule that makes our vessels practically floating warehouses for them. * * * If the lumbermen think they can force us to accept their charter parties they are mistaken. Men in the lumber trade in Boston, Philadelphia Baltimore and other ports are looking for vessels for carrying their lumber. We would have no trouble about keeping going though the local lumbermen stopped giving us lumber to carry. They have got to come to us. They can't carry their stuff bv rail. It is out of the question. We carry lumber at $5 per thousand feet and the railroads charge $12. Another thing, the lumber would have to be taken from the cars and shipped over here, which would necessitate a great deal of handling and expense. This is not necessary when it is carried by sailing vessels."

Notwithstanding the kick of the vessel owners, some of the members of the Yellow Pine Exchange declare that their new forms will be insisted upon in spite of the action of the ship owners.

DO WE SPEND OUR BALANCE OF TRADE?

We have never seen so many European parties going from North Carolina as have gone to New York to take passage on the trans-Atlantic steamships. It is estimated that not less than 200 North Carolinians are now bound for Europe and it shows that our people have the money and the time to take the trip.

The New York Journal of Commerce throws out the suggestion that while the balance of trade with Europe is in our favor, we spend a big portion of the balance in pleasure trips to Europe, thus carrying our profits right back to the Europeans who charge Americans all sorts of prices. The Journal of Commerce says the annual "rush" to Europe directs attention to one factor in that "favorable balance of trade" in which these are apt to take pride who see advantage in foreign trade only in an excess of exports over imports. Few trouble themselves to consider what becomes of this excess, and many people talk as if they thought it brought money, or at all events wealth into the country instead of carrying it away. It is said that upwards of 100,000 persons have been already booked for the Eastern voyage across the Atlantic in the present year from New York alone, and it is calculated that the number will reach at least 200,000 before the year is over. Besides this, a considerable number of passengers sail from other ports. These travelers pay their fares over and back mostly to foreign steamship companies which do their banking on the other side. How much money they spend on their travels there is no means of ascertaining, but an average of $1,000 does not seem like an excessive guess.

Says the Journal of Commerce:

"Thousands of bales of cotton and millions of bushels of grain and barrels of flour go every year to pay for trips abroad, some of which are economical and some of which are extravagant. There is nothing to be said against the practice of making these trips because the expense is paid out of the product of the labor and capital of the country, sent over in the form of commodities. They may be worth the cost in benefits of one kind or another; and, whether they are or not, it is a part of the liberty of the people to spend a part of their earnings in this way, as well as to squander a part at home. But it is well to understand that the economic effect is to spend upon foreigners and for their profit means derived from our own soil and labor and to comprehend the bearing of these expenditures upon what is called the 'balance of trade.'"

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Just as a precautionary measure, it would be a good plan to select for Minister to Venezuela some man who favors brick instead of asphalt for paving material.—Washington Post.

—Berlin breaks into the peace talk long enough to announce that the Krupp factory has contracts calling for the manufacture of 300 big guns a month for the next two years.—Washington Post.

—There may be undeground reasons for the Roosevelt send-off given to Loomis and the remarkable defense of Secretary Morton, but in both instances the President has run so contrary to the drift of public opinion as to weaken the faith of the mass of his countrymen in his good judgment.—Philadelphia Record.

—The President has got rid of one Canal Commission and created another, in spite of the refusal of Congress to act upon his recommendations, as he cheerfully said the other day. Now the Chief Engineer, who was announced to be the one man in the country fit for so great an undertaking, Has resigned. Perhaps it is not an easy thing to work under the personal direction of the President.—Philadelphia Record.

—The Wilmington Star notes that the town of Dunn, in this State, "has just sold an additional issue of $10,000 public improvement bonds to a Chicago firm at a handsome premium. The town is one of the most progressive in North Carolina. Its taxable property now exceeds $700,000." By reason of its progressiveness, Dunn has figured more conspicuously in the newspapers during the past year than almost any other own in the South.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—There is ample evidence that as a vice-president of the Santa Fe Paul Morton used his power to discriminate in favor of his own brothers and to give them rates that other shippers could not get. In fact, he did as a railroad man just about what Hyde and Alexander did as officers of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. And now President Roosevelt writes him a fulsome letter telling him what a good man he is, and how safe the interests of the Equitable policy holders will be in his hands.—Hartford Times.

—The recovery of a guide's body after twenty- eight years' entombment in a glacier of Monte Rosa is the third restoration of the kind, if we are not mistaken, in Alpine history. In 1677 his tourists saw him disappear in the crevasse, and the body could not then be recovered. But during the interval the slow movement of the glacier has been continually bringing it down, until it has been disgorged at last—his ice axe still in the dead man's hand, his pipe in his pocket. The two previous instances, as will be recalled, occurred at the Glacier des Bossons, beneath Mount Blanc, where the remains of the victims of the Hamel catastrophe in 1820 appeared after forty-one years, and those of Capt. Arkwight (lost in 1866), after thirty-one. Perhaps this third case may strengthen the hope that, as some have been predicting, the body of Lord Francis Douglas, lost in the historic first ascent of the Matterhorn, may be near Zermatt this Summer. But the probabilities are altogether against it. In the opinion of the vast majority of experts, Lord Francis fell upon some inaccessible ledge or into some cleft on the mountain's side, and will remain there to all time.—London Pall Mall Gazette.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 29.—The cotton market was less active and very nervous. At times prices showed considerable firmness, but in the late trading there was very heavy liquidation and final prices were 14 to 31 points net lower. The opening was weak at a decline of 11 to 22 points under selling for both accounts in response to disappointing cables which were olny 4 to 5 points higher at the hour of the local opening when an advance of 10 all points was due on the New York close of the previous day. But there was a big demand at the decline, encouarged by continued strength of spot markets, and reports of too much rain in some sections of the belt and inside of the first half hour, the market had rallied to nearly the closing figures of yesterday. This was followed by considerable irregularity but prices showed a generally steady tone until toward the close when fear of revolutionary developments in Russia, added to some uncertainty over the influence of notices tomorrow caused active fliquidation for both local and Southern account. The close was steady at the decline, with late months showing the greatest losses. Sales were estimated at 550,000 bales.

THE TRYING TIME

In a young girl's life is reached when Nature leads her uncertain steps across the line which divides girlhood from womanhood. Ignorance and neglect at this critical period are largely responsible for much of the after misery of womanhood. Not only does Nature often need help in the regular establishment of the womanly function, but there is almost always need of some safe, strengthening tonic, to overcome the languor, nervousness and weakness, commonly experienced at this time.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity. It is a strengthening tonic, soothing the nerves, encouraging the appetite and inducing restful sleep. It contains no alcohol neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I wish to tell you the benefit we have received from using your remedies," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Brodhead, Green Co., Wis. "Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail. Everything that could be thought of was done to help her but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout; weighed 170, the picture of good health, until about the age of fourteen, then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 120. She kept failing and I gave up, thinking there was no use, she must die. Friends all said, 'You will lose your daughter.' I said I fear I shall. I must say, doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave to-day. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

—Postmaster John A. Ipock, of Cove, was arrested by Deputy Marshal R. W. Ward Tuesday on the charge of intercepting mail. The complaining witness was Miss Janie L. Ipock, not of near kin. Ipock was bound over in the sum of $100 to the next term of the United States Court at Newbern.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Captain Sam Ashe has resurrected an old State paper going to prove that John Paul Jones received his appointment in the navy from North Carolina. If the fact is proved, the name of our State will be carved on the monument to be erected in John Paul's honor, at Annapolis.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Our tin mines seem to be coming along. The superintendent of the Jones mine, near Bessemer City, was in Charlotte yesterday buying additional machinery for the operation of that mine. The company paid $100,000 for this property, and is said to have refused ten times that amount for it. Tin mining will probably be one of the most important of all our industries in the near future.

Concord Sun: Mr. Van S. Chank, representing Church & Company, manufacturers of soda, yesterday began to sample the city by giving away soda. The city authorities demanded that he pay a license tax for this privilege, but he refused to do so, claiming that the ordinance was unconstitutional. He employed Montgomery & Crowell, to represent him, and upon being fined $25 gave bond for appeal to court. It is his intention to get a decision from the courts in regard to the matter as issue. He claims that the United States Supreme Court has already decided the question, but that this decision is not respected in this State.

—A dispatch from High Point on Wednesday says: A sad and exciting accident occurred this afternoon on Main street. Mrs. Charlie Hendrix was down the street with her children, the youngest being in the carriage. She stopped in front of one of the stores to go in, forgetting to lock her carriage which ran off the sidewalk in front of a wagon drawn by a mule. The wheel of the carriage got entangled with the wagon; the mule, which became frightened, ran down the street as far as the railroad crossing, smashing the carriage and throwing the baby out. A physician was summoned at once to give aid to the little one. It is miraculous how it escaped being killed. There were serious bruises on the child, but it is thought not to be fatally injured.

—Mr. Will Tew, the night electrician, who a few night ago reported the two negroes, Shafer and Artist for breaking into a box car which led to their arrest and confinement in jail, had an attempt made on his life a few nights ago at the electric light station at Goldsboro. He had stepped to the door to cool, when a half brick was hurled at his head from the dark; he saw the brick in time to dodge, and before he could see from whence the missile came a large piece of iron flew from the same direction and struck the house just above his head. He went inside and procured a gun and went in search of the party or parties, but they escaped in the dark. Some of the negroes in the locality are mad over the arrest of the two negroes above mentioned, and have sworn vengeance.

—A dispatch from Durham on Wednesday says: Chief of Police J. A. Woodall has issued orders that the women of doubtful character who are gathering in this section must move on. Since the tragedy in Raleigh and the fight that is being made on houses and women of this character by the Raleigh authorities, several of the women quickly gathered here and were furnishing homes with the idea of settling here. Chief Woodall instructed his men that unless the instructions to move on were obeyed within a reasonable time, they were to be arrested. Two of these women reached here yesterday and late last night. An officer was sent to their homes. The officer told the women that they would have to move away from here, giving the instruction of his chief. "It is a damn shame," said one of the women. She added that they would at once get out.

—Raleigh News and Observer, June 29: A narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon is reported by incoming passengers on the Seaboard Air Line southbound due here 3:50, but over two and a half hours late. At a road crossing about two miles from Raleigh a horse and buggy was being driven on a bridge across the road, when the horse became frightened and wheeling went off the eight-foot bridge to the ground. In the buggy were three young girls, ten to twelve years old, and a gentleman. The gentleman was F. E. Weathers, and the girls his daughters Annie and Lida, and little Lizzie Smith, daughter of W. O. Smith. The buggy turned over and all were thrown out, the girls being bruised a little though no one was seriously hurt. The accident was near the point where the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound Railroad reaches the Seaboard Air Line.

—Gastonia Gazette: A little daughter was born last Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hunsucker that had two well developed front teeth. Dr. H. F. Eddleman says that calcareous formations are sometimes mistaken for teeth. They were both taken out. teenth. They were both taken out.

The last will and testament of the late Phillip N. Bailey was probated in the office of the Superior Court clerk at Winston-Salem on Tuesday. The estate is said to be worth at least $150,000. To Mrs. Bailey, wife of the late deceased, is left the elegant home, worth $10,000, $68,300 in cash and other real estate amounting to $31,000. At the death of Mrs. Bailey the property is to be equally divided between the children of the three brothers, W. F., John K. and J. W. Bailey. The half interest in the factory and manufacturing business of Bailey Brothers is willed to William Franklin Bailey, of Iredell county, brother of the deceased.

LUMBERMEN WIN VICTORY.

Judge Speer Holds That Railroads Can't Raise Rates.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Macon, Ga., June 28.—Judge Speer, of the United States Court, for the Southern District of Georgia, in the matter of Tift et al vs. the Southern Railway et al, involving the decision of the Inter-State Commerce Commission to the effect that the railroads had no right to raise their rates on lumber 2 cents a hundred, handed down his decision to-day. He said in conclusion:

"In this case the conclusions of the court as to the issues involved agree with the conclusions of the Inter-State Commerce Commission as expressed by their report.

"A decree enjoining all the respondents against further enforcement of the rates complained of will be at once entered.

"Order will be taken referring to the standing master the pleadings and evidence with instruction to ascertain the sum total of the increased rate paid by each of the complainants to either or all of the defendant companies since the rate went into effect and to the end of this litigation and report such amount to the court that pursuant to the stipulation made by the respondents in open court that in case the complainants prevail decree of restitution shall be made.

"Because of the vast extent of the lumbermen's business and the great expense and inconvenience which might result to them and to the lumber trade and the railways from instantaneous enforcement of this action, it will be ordered further that the decree now granted shall not take effect until ten days from this date have elapsed, in order that the respondents or either of them, if they so desire, may seek the usual supersedeas."

Through the employment of the army transport sumner for the transfer of troops from New York to Fort Monroe, Va., and return for participation in the recent army and navy exercises in the Chesapeake, a saving was made to the Government of $9,480 over the rate by rail and $5,660 over the rate by commercial steamer. The troops have just embarked on the return trip from Fort Monroe.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Wilmington Will Show You How.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside—from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside—They cure sick kidneys.

Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

R. S. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniments but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

ENGINEER WALLACE WAS GIVEN BOUNCE

Secretary Taft Accuses Him of Changing His Position Over Night for Filthy Lucre.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 29.—Charging him with changing his position overnight "for mere lucre," and with being influenced "solely by personal advantage," Secretary Taft in his conference in New York on June 26 with John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, after administering a severe rebuke to him, requested his resignation on the ground that "public interest requires that you tender your resignation at this moment and turn over the records of your office to the chairman of the commission."

This fact is disclosed in an official statement issued from the office of the Secretary of War tonight which reviews the relations of Mr. Wallace with the War Department and the commission since the latter body's reorganization last Spring, quoting the several expressions of the chief engineer of his satisfaction with the entire arrangement, and then gives practically a verbatim account of the conference between Secretary Taft and Mr. Wallace in New York, which concluded with the submission to Secretary Taft of Mr. Wallace's resignation. The statement issued tonight concludes with the President's letter to Mr. Wallace dated Cambridge, Mass., June 28 which reads:

"Your resignation as member and chief engineer of the Isthmian Canal Commission, tendered in accordance with the request of Secretary Taft, which request, under the circumstances, has my entire approval, is hereby accepted to take effect immediately.

"Very truly yours,
"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The statement shows that Mr. Wallace made no complaint against any of his associates.

New York, June 29.—The offer that induced Chief Engineer John F. Wallace to quit his post on the Panama Canal came from the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, of this city, operating the elevated and subway lines, and carries with it a salary of $60,000 a year. It will undoubtedly be accepted.

All of these officers were re-elected with the exception of the grand historian, who succeeds Tazewell T. Hubbard, of Norfolk, Va., resigned.

The delegates visited the Biltmore estate this afternoon and closed their convention with a banquet at the Battery Park Hotel this evening.

DERELICT DANGEROUS TO SHIPS.

Drifting Submerged Schooner Reported Off Hatteras.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, June 29.—A dangerous derelict drifting about in the track of coastwise shipping was reported tonightby Captain Chichester, of the Clyde Line steamship Iroquois, from Jacksonville and Charleston. Captain Chichester says that at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon off the point of Hatteras shoals, with Hatteras lighthouse bearing northwest, a submerged wreck was sighted. It was a three-masted schooner lying on beam ends and just awash with the water. He considered it a menace to navigation. It is believed that the wreck is that of the schooner Clara E. Bergen, of New York, which was in collision last Sunday with the Norwegian steamer Georg.-Demois. She was abandoned by her crew. The vessel was bound from New York to Charleston, S. C., with a cargo of nitrate of soda.

STATE OF WAR IS PROCLAIMED

Odessa Streets a Battle Ground with Rumors of a Thousand or More Slain

COMPLETE ANARCHY REIGNS

Squadron Ordered to Sink Battleship Held by Mutinied Crew—Mutineers Reported to Be Shelling the City.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The Emperor has issued the following ukase, addressed to the Ruling Senate:

"In order to guarantee public safety and to terminate the disorders at Odessa and neighboring localities, we have found it necessary to declare a state of war in Odessa and district, and to invest the commander of troops in the military district of Odessa with the rights of military authority, and special rights of civil administration for the defense of order and public tranquility."

Scenes of Carnage.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—4:50 P. M.—Shortly afternoon an untimed dispatch was received here reporting that complete anarchy reigned at Odessa. The inhabitants were panic-stricken and were huddled together in the houses. The streets were filled with frenzied workmen fighting the troops. The warehouses, quays and some of the shipping in the harbor were in flames.

The correspondent of The Associated Press who forwarded this despatch had to make his way to the telegraph office through dense smoke which covered the city like a pall. He heard volleys every few minutes. In the darkness, the mob was beginning the work of pillage and plunder, indicating that the despatch was filed last night, but was delayed by the authorities. The correspondent added that blue jackets with machine guns had been landed from the battleship Kniaz Potemkine in the hand of mutineers and they fought with the strikers behind barricades against the troops. Hundreds were killed and the streets were crowded with wounded. There were rumors, the correspondent also said, that some of the soldiers had joined the mutinous sailors in fighting against the troops, but he was unable to confirm this report.

The correspondent said nothing about the arrival at Odessa of the warships commanded by Vice Admiral Kruger, but a despatch from Sebastopol says that the battleship Georgi Pobienonosetz and the cruiser Griden have started for Odessa.

Continuous Rattle of Small Arms.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—8:50 P. M.—Another untimed dispatch received this evening from Odessa and which may have been delayed by the authorities says:

"The mutineers of the battleship Knaiz Potemkine still hold the ship. Rear Admiral Kruger's squadron has not arrived here.

"A great fire is destroying the shipping in the harbor and the buildings along the shore, and in the streets a continuous rattle of small arms is heard. The military everwhere are shooting into the crowds, which are panic-stricken and madly rushing hither and thither for shelter. The number of victims is large. A state of seige has been declared in the city.

"The conflagration is sweeping along the harbor front, the sailors and strikers refusing to permit attempts to extinguish the flames. Three uninsured ships of the Pan-Russian Company have been destroyed. The office of the port administration, the stores of the Pan-Russian and the Koshkin and Russian Companies and many private establishments and a great number of wood yards have been burned, and the fire is now consuming long lines of railroad cars, containing cargoes unloaded from foreign ships. Many ships succeeded in leaving the harbor.

"The surviving officers of the battleship Knaiz Potemkine number eleven instead of eigh. A number of them were set ashore to-day by the mutineers. They confirm the details of the mutiny cabled by The Associated Press yesterday.

"The body of Omiltchuk to-day was again taken on board the Knaiz Potemkine from which a delegation of the crew, headed by the chaplain, visited the commander of the Odessa military district and asked him to accord a military funeral to the dead sailor.

"The newspapers have suspended publication as all regular life and business are at a standstill."

Battleship Shelling Odessa.

London, June 30.—The Odessa correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, in a dispatch filed at 11:29 o'clock Thursday night, says that the Knaiz Potemkine is firing on the town, and that Admiral Kruger's squadron is not in sight.

More Than 300 Slain.

Odessa, June 29.—Hundreds of rioters were shot and many killed by troops during last night's outbreak. Martial law has been proclaimed. Fires are still burning at mid-night, but there was a lull in the disorders at that time. Practically the entire harbor was gutted by the fires started by the mob last night. All the warehouses with large quantities of merchandise as well as four or five Russian steamers were burned. Probably 300 rioters were killed. Several Cossacks were also slain. The troops are rapidly restoring order.

The losses are estimated at many millions or roubles. The remnants of the wharves and warehouses set on fire last night are still buring to-day, and the city is enveloped in a thick cloud of smoke. Several explosions occurred in the port during the night, and a fierce conflict took place between troops and rioters. The dead are now reckoned in the hundreds. The hospitals are overflowing with wounded persons, and the medical aid available is quite inadequate. The shops are closed and business and traffic is suspended. The streets are occupied by troops. Many residents are leaving Odessa.

The body of Omiltchuk, the sailor executed on board the Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkine, is still exposed on the quay where it was landed by the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine yesterday. The dead man's comrades who demand that the remains shall be accorded military honors, actively fought on the side of the rioters against the troops.

Suspicions of the Squadron.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—3:45 A. M.—A dispatch which arrived here early this morning from Sebastopol announced that a squadron of battleships, the Tri Sciatitelia, the Sinope and the Rostislaw, with a cruiser and several torpedo boats, only started for Odessa at 8 o'clock last evening. This explains the non-appearance of the squadron at Odessa, but it is difficult to conjecture the reasons for delaying departure two days at such a critical juncture.

Another Ships' Crew Mutinies.

Odessa, June 29.—The crew of a government transport which arrived here to-day from Nikolieff mutinied, seized their officers and joined the crew of the battleship Kniaz Potemkine—to whom they turned over the captain and other officers of the transport.

It is reported that the foreign consuls have applied to their respective governments to send warships to Odessa.

Mutiny at Libau.

Libau, Government of Courland, Russia, June 29.—The Russian sailors here mutinied last night, attacked the government stores, seized the arms and fired into the officers' quarters. Infantry, artillery and cossacks were brought to the scene of the fighting, but the result is not known. Intense excitement prevails here.

Order Being Restored at Odessa.

Odessa, June 29.—A semblance of order has been restored, but the situation is still most critical.

The Central Railway station was destroyed by fire this evening, many perosns being injured, and taken to hospitals. The populace is still in a vengeful mood and unless the situation in handled with the utmost care anything may yet happen.

Thus far the only incident reported this evening besides the burning of the Central railway station, is the explosion of a bomb in a private house, by which several persons were injured, but it is impossible to get precise information or permission to visit the actual scenes of conflict.

Sensational accounts, which cannot be definitely confirmed, are current regarding Wednesday night's rioting. In these accounts, it is stated, that no fewer than a thousand persons were killed. The troops faced a position of complete anarchy, thousands of desperate incendiaries trying to set fire to every building. They were compelled to adopt the sternest measures and employed machine guns against the mob.

It is alleged that at 3 o'clock this morning a large body of rioters tried to enter the central part of the town by way of Bolich Hill, and that a terrific fusillade was kept up by both sides with rifles and revolvers. It is also alleged that hundreds were killed, and that when the mob tried to ascend the steps near the Church of St. Nicholas to reach the Boulevard St. Nicholas, Cossacks and other troops fired repeated volleys into the crowd with terrible results, wagon loads of dead being carried away. Many lives, it is said, were lost in the endeavors of the military to stop incendiarism. The conflagration extended for over a mile and thousands of tons of railway sleepers, and all the trestles supporting the elevated railroad serving the port, together with all the contiguous buildings were consumed, the troops in the meanwhile firing volleys to compel the rioters to desist. It is stated that three officers of police, ten policemen, twenty-three cossacks, and ten infantry soldiers were killed in these encounters.

The funeral of Omiltchuk, which has just been held, became an imposing popular demonstration, which fortunately was without disorder. A procession of many thousands of persons followed the body from the harbor along Preobrajensky street to the cilitary cemetery. The coffin, which was covered by the St. Andrew's flag, and on which there were numerous wreaths, was carried by eight sailors. The procession was headed by priests. Neither police nor troops were stationed along the route to the cemetery, owing to a wise decision by the authorities, by which the possibility of a collision was averted. In the most unruly section of the city, the populace treat the proclamation warning people to remain in doors after 6 o'clock in the evening with the greatest derision and contempt, and freely announce their intention to burn all public buildings in the course of the night. Cossacks guard all the approaches to the town, and troops patrol the streets and guard public buildings, especially the banks, within and without. As showing the strong military hold over the city, many councillors were prevented by troops from reaching the town hall to attend a meeting of the municipal council.

It is quite impossible as yet to obtain any accurate estimate of the number of killed or injured. It is reported that the Kniaz Potemkine crew sent a message to the city commandant today announcing their intention to bury their comrade with military honors, and threatening that if any interference should be attempted, they would bombard the city. Nothing has yet been heard of Admiral Kruger's squadron.

Squadron Ordered to Sink Mutineers.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—It is reported that the volunteer fleet cruiser Saratoff has been burned at Odessa. Admiral Kruger's squadron is expected to arrive at Odessa to-night. His orders are to summon the battleship Kniaz Potemkine to surrender, and upon her refusal, to sink her, after which he is to assist in restoring order in the town.

Shelled City Thursday Evening.

London, June 30.—The Daily Mail prints the following from its Odessa correspondent, timed 10:40 o'clock Thursday night:

"Using full charges, the Kniaz Potemkine opened fire on the city this evening. The first shell struck a house in Nyesjlinskaya street and the second fell on a brewery. In the walls of both buildings large holes six yards wide by three yards high were torn. So far there has been no more firing. The governor ordered the gas lamps extinguished and the electric currents severed, so that the city is in total darkness."

ROOSEVELT AT OYSTER BAY.

Will Now Rest at His Summer Home.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 29.—After a short address to the crowd of several thousand people assembled at the railroad station here, President Roosevelt left Bridgeport shortly after 8 o'clock this morning on the naval yacht Sylph, bound for Oyster Bay. One of the first objects which met the President's eye as he reached the temporary platform erected at the north end of the station was a trained bear which bore a placard marked "One You Didn't Get." As the President saw it he remarked quickly, "It's a good thing you are not in Colorado." to the great amusement of the crowd.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 29.—President Roosevelt arrived in Oyster Bay to-day, and was given an unusually demonstrative greeting by the residents of the village. The President expressed himself as deeply touched by the reception which his neighbors had extended him, and as he drove homeward remarked, "This is the best demonstration I ever saw in Oyster Bay." The President spent the afternoon quietly at Sagamore Hill with the members of his family.

Six persons were killed and twenty injured, 16 of the latter seriously, in a storm that struck Philipsburg, Kas., and vicinity Wednesday night. The destruction to property and crops will run far into the thousands.

The board of trade of Bristol, Va., decided last night to extend an invitation to President Roosevelt to visit Bristol on his Southern tour. The invitation will be extended by Congressman Slemp, of Virginia, and Brownlow, of Tennessee.

The death of William D. Atkins, chief of the Chickahominy tribe of Indians, is announced. He was highly respect and dwelt with his tribe on the government reservation in King William county, Va., the chief occupation of the tribe being hunting and fishing.

MOB MURDER IN GEORGIA

Nine Men Taken from Jail and Riddled with Bullets at Watkinsville

ONE WHITE MAN LYNCHED

Six Negroes Shot to Death, But the Seventh Left for Dead Will Recover—Georgians are Horrified.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Watkinsville, Ga., June 29.—A mob entered the jail at Watkinsville at 2 o'clock this morning and took therefrom nine prisoners, eight of whom were shot to death, and the ninth escaped only by being thought dead by the mob. The prisoners taken out and lynched were Lon J. Aycock, white, charged with the murder of F. M. Holbrook and wife, of Oconee county, and seven negroes—Rich Robinson, Lewis Robinson, Claude Elder, charged with the murder of the Holbrook couple; Sandy Brice, a young negro, charged with attempting rape upon the person of Mrs. Weldon Dooly; Rich Allen, a negro, convicted and under sentence of death for the murder of Will Robertson, another negro; Gene Yarby, a negro charged with burglary and stealing a rifle from Mr. Marshall; and Bob Harris, a negro, charged with shooting another negro.

The mob came quietly into Watkinsville a little bofore 2 A. M. There were about fifty to seventy-five men in the crowd. All were heavily masked, and no one knows whence they came or to what point they returned. They went at once to the house of Town Marshal L. H. Aiken and quietly called him to the door. As he put his head out of the door he was seized and told that he must deliver the jail keys. He refused, and the men put pistols in his face and overpowered him, he being a rather small man. Aiken refused to dress, but some of the party dressed him and carried him along. The mob next seized Courtney Elder, a blacksmith, and made him bring his tools along with him. On their way to the jail they were met by A. W. Ashford, a prominent citizen of Watkinsville, who had heard the noise at the marshal's house, and came down town as soon as he could dress. Mr. Ashford begged the men to desist and let the law take its course, especially pleading for Aycock on the ground that the evidence had not been secured to warrant his conviction. He also begged them not to lynch those not charged with capital crimes. They told him that they were cool, sober and determined, and that he might as well go back home and go to bed. The jail was then opened by the town marshal under the cover of several pistols and inside the jail, the mob held up Jailer Crow and demanded the keys to the cells. He refused at first but surrendered them after being menaced with guns. Jailer Crow begged hard for Aycock on the same ground that Mr. Ashford did, and also for the two negroes who were not charged with capital crimes. Members of the attacking party told him to shut his mouth. They knew what to do, they said, and they were going to clear out the whole jail.

The mob got every prisoner in the jail except Ed. Thrasher, a negro charged with gambling, who was on the misdemeanor side of the prison, and was not noticed. The prisoners were carried to a point some one hundred yards from the jail and tied them to fence posts by their necks. Aycock protested his innocence to the last. He said they were killing an innocent man. While the general believe in Oconee county is that Aycock was guilty, still there were many who did not believe so. Rich Robinson said it was all right, so far as he was concerned, but that three more negroes were in the Holbrook murder. He named Sidney Norris, Jim Taylor and Wiley Durham as the three implicated. These negroes had been in jail before on this charge and had been released after full investigation by the committee. The other prisoners did not open their mouths during their march to their doom.

After the prisoners had been tied to the fence posts, the mob lined up and fired five volleys into their bodies. All died without a struggle, with the exception of Joe Patterson, a negro who was charged with pointing a gun at Albert Ward. Patterson was shot several times in the body, but was alive after the mob left, and will recover.

Aycock's body was fairly riddled with shot, a great hole was torn trough his heart and another through high right breast.

The mob left quietly after doing its work and none of its members came toward Athens. It is believed that the men were from neighboring counties, as the report was brought to Watkinsville yesterday afternoon by A. N. Bostwick, of Morgan county, that a mob would likely attack the jail last night. This rumor, however, was not given much attention since so many of its kind had come before. Sheriff Overby was on his farm yesterday afternoon, and he was not notified by Mr. Bostwick. In fact, the purpose of the mob was accomplished so quietly, that the sheriff who lives a mile from the jail, knew nothing of the occurrence until this morning, and the residents of Watkinsville were taken completely by surprise. The people of Oconee county are horrified at the occurrence. They had borne with patience the delay necessary to securing the evidence against the Holbrook murderers, and had agreed to let the law take its course.

The impelling cause of the lynching, without doubt, was the attempted rape by Sandy Price, which excited the people all over this section.

Rewards for the Lynchers.

Atlanta, Ga., In an interview tonight with a correspondent of The Associated Press, Governor Jos. M. Terrell said that he deplored "the horrible affair at Watkinsville." Governor Terrell stated further that he was making a rigid investigation of the affair, and that he intended to do everything in his power to bring the guilty persons to justice. The governor will immediately offer a suitable reward for the apprehension of the men composing the mob.

VOTED AND THEN SHOT HIMSELF.

Tragic End of Prominent Man at Norfolk.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Norfolk, Va., June 29.—B. Frank Vaughn, aged 55, prominent in Portsmouth, Va., and employed in the office of the Baltimore Steam Packet Company in this city, after casting in the Portsmouth Democratic municipal primary election to-day what he declared would be his last vote, started to Norfolk, and in the ferry waiting-rooms committed suicide by shooting himself in the head.

James E. Britt, of San Francisco, light-weight champion, and "Kid" Sullivan, of Washington, D. C., have signed articles for a 20-round match to take place July 21st, before the Hayes Valley Athletic Club of San Francisco. The men are to weigh 133 pounds on the day of the fight.

DAN TEACHY MUST HANG

Governor Glenn Refuses to Interfere and States His Reasons—Dockery's Condition Unchanged.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 29.—Dan Teachey must hang in Duplin county for the murder of Robert Rivenbark. At least, Governor Glenn announces that he will not further interfere with the execution of the death sentence of the court or grant the commutation to life imprisonment that has been urged so strongly the past few weeks. In declinging commutation, Governor Glenn makes this statement:

"In his application for commutation from death penalty to life imprisonment, the prisoner has been faithfully and earnestly represented. I have considered all the evidence, heard patiently all the argument, even allowed the prisoner to see me and make his statement, but after hearing everything that could be urged by counsel, and prisoner, or deducted from the testimony, the conclusion is irresistible that Bob Rivenbark was wilfully and with malice aforethought murdered, and that the prisoner Dan Teachey committed the crime. Two fair and impartial juries have said the prisoner was guilty; the trial judge and solicitor refused to recommend the commutation of sentence; Supreme Court without any dissent has affirmed the judgment of the lower court, and say, 'there is abundant evidence in record to justify the finding of the jury that the homicide was committed in pursuance of a fixed design, deliberately formed beforehand and under circumstances attended with heartless brutality.' For these reasons, I cannot disturb the finding of the jury and the sentence of the court. Application for commutation is, therefore, denied and the sentence pronounced must be enforced."

Physicians, after consultation this evening, announced no change in the condition of John Dockery. The fact that he holds his own, is a source of hope of final recovery. W. B. Jones, T. S. Fuller, Col. S. G. Ryan have been retained to assist Solicitor Armistead Jones in the prosecution of Policeman Rogers who shot Dockery. Counsel for the defense are Argo & Shaffer and J. C. L. Harris.
